In the Ring

Joseph Siprut, founder of boutique litigation firm Siprut PC, delivered a one-two punch of festivity and charity with his annual Fight Night—an evening benefiting sports programs for children in at-risk communities. After sipping scotch in Siprut's office, the stylish gents—some of Chicago's top leaders and philanthropists—headed to the University Club of Chicago for dinner and a thrilling evening of high-energy amateur boxing. Later, guests wrapped up the evening with cigars in Iwan Ries & Co.'s private lounge, ending the night in style. A knockout evening, indeed. —SR
